DESERTED WIFE'S PATHETIC STORY

Says Her Husband, An Alexandria Grocer, Deserted Her.

SHE FINDS NEW WIFE.

Washington Attorneys Say They Will Prosecute Heartless Man in Alexandria Courts.

According to statements made in Washington, a pathetic story involving the desertion some ten years ago of a wife with three small children, two of whom are facing starvation in a peasant district in Russia, will be unfolded in the Virginia courts at Alexandria, when attorneys representing the Hebrew Charities of Washington and New York, will demand the arrest of David Finkelstein, an Alexandria grocer.

"Nothing but the arrest and conviction of the man will appease the feelings of the Hebrew people who have investigated this case," said Frederick Pelzman, the attorney who represents the Hebrew Charities of Washington in the case. "The man, though he has plenty of money, cannot compromise as far as we are concerned."

Ten years ago, on receipt of a letter from her husband, whom she married in Russia, the attorneys will tell the court in demanding the prosecution of Finkelstein, Fega, the young wife of the man and her two children made the trip to New York from her native land. She was received by her spouse and lived with him until five years later. She was about to become a mother again when her husband told her the Russian climate would be better for her and the child. She should go back to her native land, he said, until he saved enough money to go into business. She heard from him every month or so, she says, for about a year.

Then I did not hear from him any more, she said today.

"My little girl was born and we made out the best we could. One of my little boys earned $3 a week and with that we lived. I thought David was dead. Then I got papers from the courts of Virginia. I could not translate them so I sent them to friends in Ne wYork and they translated them for me. The papers told me that if I did not appear in the Virginia court by a certain date I would be divorced from my husband. That was the first time I knew he was trying to get rid of me—me and his three little ones.

"I sold the little home we owned in Russia and came to America. From New York I traced him to Washington, then to Alexandria. I asked where he lived and found that he owned a fine store and was making money. When I went into the house and asked him, 'David', do you not know me?' he said: 'No, woman you're crazy! I never saw you before!' He was married again and had a wife and three children. He left me and my baby lying on the floor while he went up to bed he and his other wife and children.

"Next morning he told me I would have to go. I went to Washington and some kind Hebrew people gave me food and a place to sleep."

Mrs. Finkelstein still possess traces of the beauty characteristic with women of her race. She has the rosy color of the Russian, combined with luxuriant black hair and eyes and has aged very little despite her suffering. She is making her home with Rabbi Horwitz, who, together with Lee Baumgartner and other eading Hebrews of Washington are taking a deep interest in her. Her baby girl is with her.

(No license has been issued in recent years by the commissioner of the revenue to a person giving the name of David Finkelstein. The police say they know no such man, nor has a warrant been issued for his arrest. The deputy clerk of the court knows nothing about such an individual. He may be located in Alexandria county.)

NEWS OF THE DAY.

One person was killed and five were more or less seriously injured early yesterday when an automobile, beyond control, sped down a steep mountain road near Lyons, Col., and was guided into the mountainside to prevent its plunging over a steep embankment. Annie Marie Jackson, aged 14 years, of Denver, was killed. The automobile carried 13 persons on its usual trip from Estes Park to Boulder. As Chauffeur Wolcott started down a steep stretch of road seven miles from Lyons, the brakes on the big passenger machine failed to work. Unable to stop the car, Wolcott guided in into the mountainside, the impact causing it to overturn. The other seven occupants escaped unhurt.

Pope Pius is ill again. He is suffering from a cold and hoarseness. Although advised by his physicians to take absolute rest today, he insisted on carrying out his engagements, which included the reception of a number of pilgrims at the Vatican.

Lawrence Blakeman, aged nineteen, and Lucy Beach, twenty, were killed yesterday when they rode through an open drawbridge at St. Joseph, Mich., in an automobile. They plunged thirty feet into the St. Joseph river, and were drowned before help could reach them.

London—A man known as Heinrich Kremers Kuthen was tried in Old Bailey Court on the charge of trying to blackmail Lord Rothschild of the famous banking firm and one of the richest men in the world.

Berlin—Oil has been struck at Hanover at a depth of 1,600 feet by borers for potash, and 300 barrels a day have been produced since Aug. 30th, the oil being of good quality.

Berlin—That women of the underworld in Frankfurt have been seized and forcibly used as "experimental guinea pigs" in the city hospital in investigations regarding treatment of human beings, and that fifteen deaths have occurred and a number of unfortunate women made lame or blind as a result of the treatment, are some of the charges made by Herr Wasserman, editor of a local paper.

KILLS COUSIN AND HIMSELF.

Farmer, While Temporarily Insane, Commits Double Murder.

Richmond, Sept. 5.—Temporarily insane from worry over family troubles and aggravated by a trivial quarrel between William Perkins and his younger son, George Henry Girard, 55 years old, a prominent Henrico county farmer, shot and killed his cousin, Wiliam Wirt Perkins, 25 years old, yesterday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock on the Old Archer plantation in Virginia district, and then sent a load from a shotgun into his heart, dying instantly.

Girard was a native of Michigan, having come from Saginaw about three years ago and purchased the property of Dr. Carthorn Archer near Varina. He was accompanied by his wife and eight children. His eldest son, John Girard, lived with him, but was dissatisfied and left this evening with his wife and two small children for their former home in Michigan. This worried the elder Girard and when he returned home from bringing his son to the train in this city he secured a double-barrued shotgun and went to the field where Fred Knight and his cousin Perkins were working. Girard commanded Perkins to get down on his knees and when the young man started to run he fired. The load struck Perkins on the arm and side and as he fell Girard fired another load into his right groin and then struck his head several times with the butt of the gun.

Girard returned to his own yard, pulled off his right shoe, placed the muzzle of the gun against his left breast and pulled the trigger with the toe of his right foot. The load penetrated his heart.

Girard was a man of considerable means. He paid $10,000 for the Archer plantation and subsequently bought property, adjoining.

SENATORS PLAN FOR VACATIONS

Believe There Will Be No Trouble in Reaching a Vote.

THE CURRENCY BILL.

Some Think Measure Will Not be Reported Before November—President Wilson Firm.

Washington, Sept. 5.—Numerous Senators are planning to take vacations as soon as the tariff bill passes the Senate. If the bill goes through Saturday night or early the coming week, there will be an exodus of a large number of statesmen who are convinced that there will be no hurry in disposing of a currency bill.

Some of the Senate leaders said today the Weeks resolution directing the Senate Banking and Currency Committee to report a bill December 2, would not be passed by the Senate, but that the passage of currency legislation would be long deferred. It is expected that a number of weeks will elapse before the committee agrees on a bill.

Some senators said it would be November 1 before the committee could report a currency bill. The feeling in committee that there should be extended hearings is pronounced.

Throughout the hearing before the Banking and Currency Committee yesterday, representatives of the Chicago conference of bankers continued to make objections to features of the bill.

President Wilson has made it plain he has not changed an inch from his position, and that he intends to enforce legislation on currency in the special session.

FIXING RESPONSIBILITY.

Engineer And Flagman of Ill-fated Train Arrested.

New Haven, Sept. 5.—A. R. Miller, engineer of the White Mountain express, which crashed into the Bar Harbor express last Monday morning and Flagman Murray, of the latter train, were arrested last night on a warrant issued by Coroner Mix, alleging his suspicion that they were criminally responsible for the death of Royal A. Hotchkiss, one of the victims of the disaster.

Bail in the sum of $5,000 was demanded for each of them. Miller was released at once, the bond for him being furnished by Francis B. Gates, secretary and treasurer of the local branch of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Efforts are being made to obtain a bondsman for Flagman Murray, but as he is not a member of the brotherhood, nor of any organization, the local members and officials do not feel like taking the responsibility of going bail for him.

The Federal government yesterday stepped into the investigation of Tuesday's wreck on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, which cost more than a score of lives.

Several facts that will go far in fixing responsibility for the wreck were learned. Despite the fact that the operating schedule of the railroad had been almost demoralized by the heavy traffic of early this week, the White Mountain express was traveling at a speed of fifty miles an hour when it struck the Bar Harbor express.

Engineer August B. Miller, who was in charge of the White Mountain express when it plowed through the wooden cars of the Bar Harbor Express, was not the regular engineer of the train. Miller had pleaded with his superior at Springfield not to give him the run. He had worked more than eight hours and had but little sleep.

"I am too tired to make the trip. Please put another man on the train," he pleaded. But his request was not granted.

Members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers are indignant because Coroner Mix denied Miller the privilege of being represented by counsel at the "secret hearing" conducted today.

LONG TERMS IN PENITENTIARY.

Negro Highwaymen Tried at Alexandria County Court House Today.

The three negro highwaymen who terrorized the vicinity of West End in Fairfax county and Alexandria county two weeks ago and who were later arrested at the south end of the highway bridge, were tried at a special term of the Circuit Court of Alexandria county today and given long terms in the state penitentiary.

The three men commenced their career of crime in this vicinity on August 21st, when they held up Irving Stout, the telegraph operator at Franconia, and later tried the same game on Charles E. Corgan, an attorney, of this city. The next day they journeyed to Barcroft, in Alexandria county, where they relieved Stephen A. Feagans, a well-known insurance agent, of his watch, other articles and a sum of money. The three highwaymen were later arrested at the south end of the highway bridge by Conductor Nowland of the Washington Utilities Company, and Constable Burke, of Alexandria county.

A special grand jury, with Harry Thomas, as foreman, was summoned and they brought in a true bill against the three men. Judge Thornton, appointed Amos C. Crounse to represent Robert Johnson, R. C. L. Moncure to represent John Morris and W. B. Settle to represent William Jones. The three men plead guilty and Judge Thornton sentenced Johnson to 18 years in the penitentiary, Morris to 10 years and Jones to 10 years.

NEW LINE CERTAIN.

Will Operate Between Washington, Alexandria, Colonial Beach and Norfolk.

That the proposed Morse line of steamships between New York, Norfolk and the South will go to Baltimore, as stated in a dispatch from that city, is not believed by Potomac steamboat men in close touch with the situation, who assert that the Morse line will come to Washington, via Colonial Beach from Norfolk.

It is pointed out that there are already three large steamboat lines between Baltimore and Norfolk, wheras Washington only has one, which would make that city a point of less competition.

Mr. Morse is now operating a line of steamers on the Hudson river, and it is said that this line will form a link in the new chain.

SOUTH FAIRFAX STREET.

Work of Improving Thoroughfare From Duke to Wilkes Proceeding Rapidly.

Within the next two or three days the grading of Fairfax street from Wolfe to Wilkes will have been finished and the work of laying a vitrified brick roadway will be commenced next week.

The cobblestones on the square from Wolfe to Duke street are being removed preparatory to placing a similar roadway on that square.

The granite curbing and most of the brick to be used are now on the ground.

Both these squares are to have granolithic sidewalks.

PRESIDENT INVITED TO FAIR.

Receives Delegation and Tells Members He Will Come if Possible.

Richmond, Va., Sept. 5.—A delegation from Richmond, Va., headed by a mayor, two former Governors, and a prospective Governor, called at the White House yesterday afternoon to invite President Wilson to attend the State fair, which is to be held at the Virginia capital during the week commencing October 6.

The President received the delegation, and after brief addresses had been made by a number of members of the party he signified his desire of attending the fair and declared that he would if no other engagement interferred. Short speeches were made by Mayor George Ainslie, Senator Swanson, former governor; Representative Montague, likewise former governor; L. R. Peters, president of the Richmond Common Council, and Henry Fairfax president of the State Fair Association.

HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE IS FEARED

Five Hundred Persons May Have Perished From the Storm.

ISLAND WAVE SWEPT.

Millions of Dollars' Worth of Property Said to Have Been Destroyed—Town Wiped Out.

Newbern, N. C., Sept. 5.—Ocracoke Island on the North Carolina coast was wave swept in the storm of Wednesday, according to advices received here this morning, and there is slight hope that any of the five hundred inhabitants have escaped with their lives. That not a living soul was able to reach the main line is the report, well credited here.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 5.—Property to the amount of two million dollars or more was destroyed by the storm which swept the coast of North Carolina Tuesday and Wednesday, wrecking bridges, destroying houses and taking a toll of lives. Washington, Newbern, Farmville and the whole eastern section of the State suffered.

From 10 o'clock Tuesday night to 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, the wind blew at a tremendous velocity, and water in the sounds swept up into rivers flooding Newbern, Washington, Tarboro and other places. Country bridges across Neuse river were swept away, and two railroad bridges and one county bridge over the Tar river at Washington were washed down.

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 5.—News received here tonight from the town of Washington, Beaufort county, tells of enormous destruction in that town and county, estimated at more than a million dollars.

The business section of the town is wrecked and great stocks of merchandise are piled up in the streets. The stores not unroofed are submerged in several feet of water, especially the basements.

Specials from Farmville, Pitt county, report two persons killed there by the storm of yesterday.

There were two fatalities in Edgecombe county, near Tarmora, and the devastation in that section of the state to property and crops is today shown to have been much greater than expected.

Dispatches just coming in over makeshift lines of communication indicate that the town of Belhaven is wiped off the map.

In Aurora fifteen houses were destroyed. At Vandemere the damage was heavy, reaching high into the thousands. In the city more than two hundred cattle and hogs were drowned and tonight their carcasses are lying in the streets, a serious menace to the public health.

Throughout Eastern North Carolina growing crops are virtually a total loss and no estimate of the devastating effect of the wind and rain can be made tonight.

DEATH OF LIEUT. LOVE.

Deceased Was a Native of Fairfax County, Virginia.

San Diego, Cal., Sept. 5.—Lieut. Moss L. Love, of the Army Aviation Camp on North Island, who was killed yesterday when he lost control of his aroplane in a glide to earth and fell about 30 0feet, was the son of James M. Love, of Fairfax, Va. He was 34 years old, having been born September 16, 1879. President McKinley appointed him second lieutenant of the Second Cavalry from civil life.

On December 1, 1910, he was made a first lieutenant and transferred to the Seventh Cavalry. He was detailed to the Signal Corps April 6, 1911. He was assigned to aviation duty April 26, going first to Texas City, Tex., from which station he was transferred to San Diego last June. Lieut. Love graduated from the Army Signal School in 1900.

The death of Lieut. Love makes the eleventh that has occurred in the army and navy since 1908.

The improved rails for Royal street from Prince to Wilkes were delivered to the Washington Utilities Company yesterday, when the work of placing them in position was begun immediately by Superintendent Clift. Those employed in the work labored all last night and by noon today old rails on the three squares had been replaced by new. The work of placing a modern roadway over the three squares will now proceed rapidly.

DEPORTATION IS SURE IN THAW CASE

In Which Event Fugitive Will be Returned to Matteawan.

TO TEST HIS SANITY.

Whatever the Decision May be, Jerome Says he Will Get Him Coming or Going.

Coaticooke, Quebec, Sept., 5—This is apparently to be Harry K. Thaw's last day on Canadian soil. The board of inquiry is questioning him as to his sanity. If he is found insane he will be deported to the neareest New York place of entry—Rouse's Point. If the decision is that he is not insane then the board will find that he has been an inmate of an insane asylum within five years, and as such is an undersirable alien and must be deported at the point at which he entered Canada. This point is Colebrook, Vt.

Governor Fletcher of Vermont has said that he will honor a requisition from New York State asking for the person of Harry K. Thaw on the charge of being wanted there for conspiracy and bribery in the escape from Matteawan.

Thaw's counsel have given up hope of saving him. They realize that it is either Vermont or Matteawan, or Rouse's Point and then Matteawan.

The board of inquiry met again at 9:30 a. m. today.

L. T. Marechal, counsel for the Dominion officials at Ottowa, plainly told the Thaw attorneys that any fight they might make against the decision of the board of inquiry would probably result in Thaw's deportation direct to Matteawan instead of into Vermont.

"Canada will have no more of Thaw" he said. "He is without doubt an undersible alien. If he brings his millions into play to fight the government, he will get every legal chance, but he cannot override the immigration laws of the Dominion and under them we can deport him to the institution from which he came."

Marechal's statement was construed as a warning to the Thaw counsel that it would be useless for them to seek aid at Ottawa or to try any more appeals.

"It seems only a matter of hours when Thaw will have to go back into the United States," said W. L. Shurtleff, Thaw's personal attorney.

Coaticoke, Quebec, Sept 5.—William Travers Jerome was in jail today for nearly an hour, charged with gambling on railway property. Shortly before noon he was released on $500 bail for a hearing before a magistrate tomorrow morning. The maximum penalty, according to the crown prosecutor, is one year's imprisonment, with no option of a fine.

DYING WIFE BEATEN.

Edward J. Wolfe Jailed in Default of Fine.

Baltimore, Sept. 5.—Edward J. Wolfe, 40 years old, 1220 East Chase street, was committed to jail yesterday morning in the Northeastern Police Court by Magistrate Dean in default of a fine of $25 and costs, imposed for creating a disturbance, and for beating and choking his wife.

It as testified that several times on Wednesday Wolfe beat his wife, who was lying ill in bed almost at the point of death. In the adjoining room was his daughter, nine years old, also dangerously ill. Mrs. Wolfe is in the last stages of tuberculosis, and has but a few days to live, it was testified by two attending physicians.

When fined Wolfe pleaded hard for his liberty, but the justice refused to listen to his plea.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES MEET

Increased Number of Permits Issued Over Last Year Reported

All the members of the City School Board were present at the meeting last night.

The committee on school houses and furniture made sundry reports concerning repairs to buildings and other matters.

In reply to questions, the superintendent and clerk stated that the schools will be called upon to accommodate about one hundred more pupils this year than last year, and the superintendent called attention to the fact that the services of another teacher were needed.

After interchange of opinion, it was resolved to elect an additional teacher.

Some of the members were anxious to elect the teacher at once, but after discussion it was determined to postpone the selection of the additional instructor until next Monday night at which time an adjourned meeting will be held.

The salary of E. B. Prettyman, of Washington, elected a teacher in the high school in July was fixed at $850 per annum, and that of Miss Kress Ficklin and Miss Pearl Hoffman, also teachers in that branch, at $750 each ..

The fact that the number of permits for tuition in the public schools had increased and that an additional teacher and more room is needed to meet the requirements upon the system, was the cause of queries concerning reports circulated during the week to the effect that parents of certain children residing in Fairfax and Alexandria counties had secured permits for their offspring to enter our public schools.

About twelve years ago the board adopted a rule by which persons residing contiguous to Alexandria could send their children to the schools of this city provided they owned property in Alexandria and obtained licenses for transacting business in the city.

It was thought by some that this was an unwise procedure, as a non-resident, owning any taxable real estate in Alexandria no matter how insignificant by procuring a license for conducting a cookshop or operating a horse and cart upon the streets, which requires but a small outlay, can send his children to the city schools. During the discussion of the matter last night it was shown that in one case a former resident who has recently constructed a new dwelling outside the city limits is sending his children to our schools. When application for the permit was made it was alleged that the children were in charge of a guardian in this city.

As it is believed Alexandria is gradually increasing in the number of students who should receive their education in Alexandria or Fairfax county, notice was given that, at the next regular meeting a resolution would be introduced rescinding the action of the board about twelve years ago, and providing that in future no children shall enter the public schools of Alexandria whose parents reside outside the city save only those whose tuition is paid by the board of supervisors of Fairfax county.

The price of tuition for outsiders is at present $60 a year. The board may reduce this somewhat.

The board adjourned about 10 o'clock.

BLAZE AT A DRUG STORE

Southern Portion of E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Establishment Was Burning

Shortly after 3 o'clock this morning, while Sergeant Wilkinson, of the police force, was on the west side of Fairfax street, his attention was attracted by sounds resmebling those caused by crackling flames, and upon making an investigation he discovered the southern end of the building occupied by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, adjoining the law offices of Messrs. J. R. & H. B. Caton and J. M. Johnson was on fire. The sergeant sounded an alarm and the fire department making a prompt response, the flames were arrested before the damage had assumed serious proportions.

Some of the contents of the building were destroyed and the structure damaged.

There is every reason to suppose the fire was the work of a pyromaniac, as the blaze was started from the outside

Had the fire not been discovered almost as soon as it was started a serious conflagration would have followed, as the buildings occupied by the firm contain oils, paints and other inflammable articles.

GIRLS ON RAMPAGE.

Inmates of Industrial Home for Girls Cause More Trouble.

Richmond, Sept. 5.—Throwing the neighborhood into a state of excitement, appearing suddenly at the house of some of the residents of Bon Air, roaming the environments of that town, and subjecting to indignity the newly-appointed overseer, William H. Turpin, the inmates of the Industrial Home for Girls, near Bon Air, have been on an extended ramage.

Availing themselves of the absence of Mrs. M . M. Light, the superintendent of the home, and apparently resenting the appointment of Mr. Turpin, the girls yesterday morning started on a troube-making tour which did not terminate until Mr. Turpin found himself in a stretch of dark roads about two miles north of the home, with the ultimatum delivered to him by the girls that if he returned again to the home he would be whipped to death. A large whip was brandished over him by one of the girls.

The assault on Mr. Turpin was made about 9:30 o'clock in the morning. He was working in the field when suddenly a party of about fifteen of the girls, at a given signal, descended upon him. Mr. Turpin was unceremoniously thrown to the ground, tied and bundled into a cart which the girls had evidently pitched up especially for the occasion. Then he was driven by highways and byways until a piece of forest was reached, about two miles from the home. There, after further rough handling and dire threats from the girls as to what would happen to him if he ever returned, he was left.

Mr. Turpin made his way back to Bon Air and took the train to Richmond. It is said that he has been advised not to return to the home immediately.

Residents of Bon Air have become alarmed at the increasing frequency of the outbreaks at the girl's home, and have asked the authorities of Chesterfield county to take some means of preventing further trouble.

Monday about ten of the inmates of the home escaped and spent the day roaming the country thereabouts and frightening households. After wearing themselves out they returned and surrendered."

For the past two weeks it is said, things have been in a more or less chaotic state at the home, and, while there were occasional disturbances, there has been nothing to equal the occurrences of the past three days.

FATAL BLOW.

Young Man Dies After Trip on Temperance Excursion.

Richmond, Sept. 5.—Lee B. Tignor, aged twenty-three, a carpenter, who was found dying in a pool of water near the dock Wednesday morning, died as a result of a bruise on the head sustained in a fall, and the effects of too much alcohol, according to the findings of Dr. W. H. Taylor, the coroner, who visited the scene and viewed the body yesterday.

Tignor, with a number of friends, went down the river Tuesday night on an excursion by the Lehigh Street Women's Temperance League of America. The young men took some liquor along and when the Pocahontas docked on her return Tignor was so much under the influence of liquor that he was assisted from the boat by Fred Bonaldi. and Arthur Davis, friends of Tignor.

Feeling they were unable to get him home they placed him near the railroad tracks and stayed with him. They fell asleep and about 3 o'clock Bonaldi awakened. He found Tignor wandering around in a pool of water which had gathered because of the recent rains and a freshet. Bonaldi went to his assitance and got him from the water. Tignor had fallen and struck his head on the stones at the botton of the pool in which the water was very shallow.

Tignor was taken to the First police station where about 4 o'clock he died. Dr. Torregrosa, who had been called to him could do nothing to save the young man's life.

STORM AT DANVILLE.

Telephone Wires Tangled and Limbs Blown From Trees.

Danville, Va., Sept. 5.—A fourteen-hour fall of rain, accompanied by a wind which at times assumed the proportions of a hurricane, held Danville in its grasp from six Wednesday morning until 8 o'clock at night. Rarely has such a persistent rain fallen. The gale came from the northeast and did some little damage to the telephone wires and tore great limbs from the trees in the city. Nearly all the streets were carpeted last night with the green leaves carried away before the blow, which reached its height at about 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

No serious damage has yet been reported but it is thought that much tobacco will have suffered severely in the neighborhood.

HELD FOR MURDER.

Tully McClung Also to be Tried on Charge of Killing Officer.

Covington, VaV., Sept. 5.—Lee McClung, brother, and Alvin McClung, nephew, are being held at Birchwood W. Va., charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff William E. McClung.

Tully McClung, a popular young man, made his escape, but was captured Tuesday in Greensboro, N. C. where he had been employed as a teacher in the Greensboro Commercial school. He is accused of taking part in the murder.

The McClungs are prominent in Greenbrier and Nicholas counties, W. Va., and are known in this section of the Old Dominion. The victim of the murder was shot in the back as it is thought he was running from his slayeyrs.

Lee McClung is reported to be worth between $40,000 and $50,000. His son Alvin, has been attending medical college and would have graduated in another term.

Deputy Sheriff McClung was active in politics. A family feud probably caused him to be murdered. His body was found in the woods in Nicholas county.

NON-RESIDENT CHILDREN IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Ever since the establishment of the public school system in the state of Virginia people residing near cities have strangely imagined they should be allowed to send their children to schools nearer their homes than those established in the counties. The absurdity of such a notion should long ago have been apparent. The public schools of the city are supposed to be for the benefit of Alexandrians who pay taxes for the support of the same.

Alexandria has been up against this proposition during the past forty years, as the growing villages of West End, Rosemont, etc., adjoin this city—in fact they are outgrowths of Alexandria — and occasionally the School Board has been forced to take action when it became known that children of parents residing inside the city limits have been unable to secure accommodations in the schools while those of non-residents have been received.

Many years ago the board adopted a resolution, which was virtually prohibitive, requiring parents and guardians living outside the city, when preferring the tuition of the Alexandria schools, to pay sixty dollars for each pupil entered .

About twelve years ago it was found that children of people residing in West End, and other nearby places were availing themselves of our schools, and teachers were directed to dimiss all such. At that time the children of a well-known business man of this city who had erected a home in Alexandria county were enjoying the benefits of our schools, and they were accordingly notified that they could not be tutored any longer. The gentleman in question was a large propertyowner and was paying license tax to conduct business in this city

The School Board, whether wisely or not at that time, adopted a rule that the children of persons living outside the city who owned taxable real estate in Alexandria and who were actually engaged in business here and paying license for such privilege, would be allowed to send their children to our schools.

This course, unfortunately, has, it is believed, been abused, and has opened the door to a practice which is causing those conducting public education some annoyance.

Under this rule persons owning property, no matter how insignificant and who will take out a license, entailing a small expenditure, for the privilege of conducting some class of business whether they pursue it or not, can enter their children.

It was learned today that most of the licenses secured for the purpose referred to above were for operating wagons on the streets of Alexandria. These are mostly delivery wagons used in business enterprises outside the city. The license tax on such is $2.50 a year.

Some members of the board manifested a disposition at the meeting last night to rescind this order, and in future permit only children of bona fide taxpayers and residents to avail themselves of the privileges of our public schools.

Children from West End, Rosemont, Shooters Hill and other contiguous places are now in our schools and the statement was made last night that at least one hundred additional pupils will need housing and tutoring during the present session. Hence it was found necessary to elect another teacher.

There is no reason why we should mention all the schemes used by outsiders to get their children educated in our schools. They generally avail themselves of property and license privilege, but in one instance a family recently removed from Alexandria to Shooters Hill, obtained permits for children by getting a resident of this city to become guardian of their offspring.

Notice was given last night that at the October meeting a resolution would be introduced rescinding the action of the board several years ago, and should it receive a majority of the votes only children of actual residents will be received in the Alexandria public schools in future, unless they are willing to pay the tuition charges fixed for non-residents.

NEGRO ASSAULTS WOMAN.

Accused Taken to Norfolk to Prevent Being Lynched.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 6.—Lee Archer, colored, of Princess Anne county, charged with criminal assault, was late yesterday evening rushed to Norfolk by automible to prevent a lynching. Miss Cora Whitehurst, aged 19, was his victim, and is in a precarious condition, under the care of physicians. She positively identifies Archer as her assailant.

Miss Whitehurst was alone in her home, her father and brother being away in the field, when Archer entered the house and assaulted her. She was found unconscious by the men on their return. The sheriff and posse organized scoured the woods all of Wednesday night before finally locating Archer.

Wild rumors of a lynching stirred the officials at Princess Anne Courthouse yesterday to action. Judge B. D. White, of the Circuit Court, promised to immediately call a special grand jury to indict the negro in order that a speedy trial could follow, uut it failed to subdue the excitement. Realizing that there was every likelihood of trouble last night, Archer was hastily rushed here. A special grand jury has been called for Monday to pass on the case. Archer will probably face a jury before the end of next week.

Dirrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea, and Mr. Yorks, the merchant, here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one dose of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriole, Pa. This is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by all dealers.

Mother of Eighteen Children.

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to and as much as I want and feel better than at any time in years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by all dealers.

MARKET VERY QUIET.

Practically no Change in Prices From Last Week.

There was but little change in market quotations during the past week, prices being practically stationary and offerings of fruits and vegetables not very abundant. Apples and peaches are to be found in abundance and are reasonable in price. Meat remains high with but little change expected. Eggs continue to hover around the 30 cent mark, some of the stores selling at this price for the strictly fresh country article while others ask 31 and 32 cents for the same product.

This week marked the commencement of the oyster season but the weather seems too warm for housekeepers to add this food to their regular menus as yet. Watermelons are still to be obtained in profusion and are cheap.

Reduced Prices On Standard Mason FRUIT JARS

It will pay you to buy these jars now and use them for putting up corn, tomatoes and other vegetables—the jars are much better than cans and will be good next season.
